Re: Case Identifier: CGB-CC-1338
CG Docket No. 06-181
Petition for Closed Captioning Exemption
Dismissal of Petition

Dear Ms. Roesch:

By this letter, we are confirming your recent request to withdraw Port of Faith Chapel's above-referenced Petition for exemption¹ from the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's) closed captioning rules.

On January 31, 2017, you advised me by telephone that your client, Port of Faith Chapel, no longer seeks the closed captioning exemption, and that it wishes to withdraw its petition. You confirmed this intention in an email dated February 1, 2017. Accordingly, your client's petition will be withdrawn and dismissed without prejudice as of the date of this confirmation, February 1, 2017. Because the Commission invited public comment on your Petition,² the withdrawal is also being announced by a Public Notice. For your convenience, we are enclosing a copy of the Public Notice announcing the dismissal of the Petition.

If you have questions pertaining to this letter, please contact the FCC's Disability Rights Office at captioningexemption@fcc.gov.

NOTICE OF EXEMPTION PETITION WITHDRAWALS AND DISMISSALS

CG Docket No. 06-181

By this Notice, the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC's or Commission's) Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau (Bureau) announces the dismissal, without prejudice, of certain petitions for exemption from the Commission's closed captioning requirements listed herein.¹

The Commission's closed captioning rules allow video programming providers, producers, or owners to obtain an exemption from the closed captioning requirements if they demonstrate that providing captions on their programming would be "economically burdensome."² On various dates, the petitioners listed in the Appendix filed petitions for closed captioning exemptions under these rules. The Bureau then placed each of these petitions on public notice. However, before the Commission determined whether to grant or deny the requests for an exemption, these petitioners provided written notification to the Commission that their programs were no longer on the air and that they wished to withdraw their petitions, thereby rendering their petitions moot. Therefore, on varying dates, we notified each petitioner listed in the Appendix that we would dismiss their petition without prejudice. This Notice serves to inform the general public that these petitions have been dismissed.

To request materials in accessible formats for people with disabilities (Braille, large print, electronic files, audio format), send an e-mail to fcc504@fcc.gov or call the Consumer and Governmental Affairs Bureau at 202-418-0530 (voice) or 202-418-0432 (TTY). This Public Notice can also be downloaded in Word and Portable Document Format at <https://www.fcc.gov/economically-burdensome-exemption-closed-captioning-requirements>.
